Kiawah is One of the Top Real Estate Draws in the U.S.

Since 1988, Kiawah Partners has sold over $4.2B of developer-owned real estate, spanning multiple bull and bear markets. As a result of businesses embracing remote or hybrid work, Kiawah is experiencing record interest in residential real estate. The combined record demand and limited supply has pushed price appreciation up 44% year over year. Going forward the luxury resort /residential home market is expected to continue. The increased demand is expected to come from two groups: the second home luxury buyer and the high-net-worth retiree. Both are drawn to Kiawah for its warm climate, high-end amenities and access to Charleston.
